Destructive Fires.

A Silk Mill Burned at Catasauqua, Pa.

SEVERAL PEOPLE ARE KILLED.

A Number of Others Injured, Some Fatally, By Falling Walls—Caused By a Vitriol Explosion—The Loss Will Reach $300,000—Other Fire Losses.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., April 25.—At 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning fire was discovered in the dye house of the Unicorn silk mill at Catasauqua. The flames spread with remarkable rapidity and soon enveloped the entire building, which was destroyed together with machinery, a quantity of fine silks, plushes, ribbons, etc. The loss is estimated at $250,000 to $300,000.

While the firemen were busily engaged in their efforts to check the flames an explosion of some vitriol and other acids stored on the premises took place. The concussion shook the ground and shattered the building. Before the firemen could retreat several of their number were caught by the falling walls and many others were injured by the flying debris. The firemen directed several streams upon that part of the burning ruin under which their companions lay buried, and the work of rescue was at once begun.

The following is the list of the killed and injured:

John Good, aged 27, crushed to death. He leaves a widow. He was one of the most popular young men in the neighborhood.

Joseph Lodigina, an Italian, also crushed to death.

Ulysses G. Everett, aged 18, fatally injured, and has since died.

George L'faill fatally injured.

Charles Frick, skull fractured and terribly burned, died a few hours after being taken from the ruins.

Michael Morgan, internally injured, cannot live.

William Price, head cut.

William F. Sternacher, leg broken and badly burned.

Thomas James, severely burned and hit with flying debris; injured about the head and body.

George Fennel, slightly injured about the head.

Peter Dorchammer, cut about the head and body by flying glass and other debris.

It is believed that there are two persons still in the ruins. Their names are not known.

Many persons, spectators and others, were injured slightly by flying particles. The fire is supposed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion in one of the packing rooms. At 11 o'clock the fire was under control.

The headquarters of the company are 880 Greene street, New York.

Com's Factory Damaged.

BRIDGEPORT, April 25.—The factory of the Shelton Comb company was damaged by fire yesterday to the amount of $50,000. The factory was a wooden structure, and attached to it were three others. The flames spread and made an almost clean sweep. The first building was occupied as follows: Shelton Comb company, the Newell Printing company, and four other firms; all are a total loss. The Housatonic Brass company's store room in the adjoining building was also destroyed. In the Wheeler building, adjoining, Mrs. Slicer, who occupied a tenement there, was badly burned, and died half an hour after being taken out.

Dynamite Explosion.

DELAWARE, Wis., April 25.—An explosion of dynamite yesterday afternoon in the cellar of the drug store of H. H. Doane wrecked the building, breaking windows several blocks away, and damaging adjoining buildings. The roof of the drugstore was blown high in the air, and this was followed by a sheet of flame which enveloped the entire building. Four men were in the drugstore at the time, Mel Barnhard and Dr. Patrick were rescued, the latter badly hurt. Doane and an unknown man perished in the flames. A hard wind prevailed and only heavy firewalls on either side prevented a great loss.

Hotel Guests Routed Out by Fire.

CHICAGO, April 25.—A fire supposed to be of incendiary origin, that started in the office of a physician located in Kuhne's hotel early this morning, caused a slight panic among the guests. The night clerk aroused every one in the house, and they turned out thinly clad and remained on the street until the firemen quenched the blaze. Chief Swenick says his men found a pile of paper in a corner of the office, and he believes the fire was started for the purpose of destroying the office and the entire building. The matter will be investigated by the police department.

Burned to Death in Their Dwelling.

BELLEVILLE, Ont., April 25.—Fire last night destroyed a small dwelling house on Church street, occupied by William Arthurs and his wife. Mrs. Arthurs was burned to a crisp, while Mr. Arthurs was so seriously burned, he will probably die.

Dry Goods Damaged by Fire.

LONDON, Ont., April 25.—The building and stock of J. H. Chapman & Company's clothing and dry goods store were damaged by fire yesterday to the extent of $25,000; covered by insurance.

Moscow, April 25.—Five sisters named Domonieroff committed suicide here yesterday. The youngest of the five was only 19 years of age. The cause of the deed was their fear of being arrested as nihilists. A short time before taking their lives they burned all of their papers, presumably with the object of shielding themselves.

BRAZIL NEWS.

President Da Fonseca's Determination. Will Change the Capital.

RIO JANEIRO, April 24.—Gen. Da Fonseca, the head of the provisional government, says he is determined to deliver up the government to the legislative congress just as soon as possible, and that internal peace and order shall be maintained, cost what it may.

From some words that the general and his ministers have let drop it would seem that they are convinced of the necessity of removing the capital from the metropolis, or principal commercial city, just as soon as possible.

The provisional government have declared that they do not consider it the proper opportunity, for any change in the legislation now in force, regarding the registration elective franchise of women.

The Journal do Commercio (monarchist and opposition) has come out in a leader against the proposed plebiscite or voting of the new constitution to be proposed by the provisional government to the people direct.

SHOT BY A CLASSMATE.

Revenge of a Bad Boy on a Young Girl Who Told of His Misconduct.

BRAZIL, Ind., April 25.—Ben Carberry, aged 13 years, shot Cora Benbach, aged 11, the ball, a 22-calibre, entering the temple and glancing downward into the cheek, inflicting an ugly and perhaps fatal wound. The two are classmates in the public school. Cora had informed the teacher of some of Ben's misconduct and he had threatened to kill her for so doing.

At recess while she was playing in the back yard with one or two other girls of her own age, he approached, saying as he pointed the revolver at her head: "I am going to shoot you." The girl threw up her hand, the ball passing through it, though its force was scarcely stayed. In the confusion that followed the young murderer was permitted to escape after being disarmed. He has since been captured and will be held to await developments. The girl is now resting easy and may recover.

INDUCEMENT TO MARRY.

A Man Out of Work Promised Employment If He Will Marry.

NEW YORK, April 25.—Bertha Hildebrand, a young German woman, aged 22 years, arrived here on Tuesday on the Polynesian with her sister and brother-in-law. She was detained, as she was about to become a mother.

The brother-in-law and sister were permitted to land. Yesterday they called at the large office with John Sommers, a German butcher of Cincinnati, whom they met at the boarding house, 112 Greenwich street, and whom they had known three years ago in Germany. Sommers lost his wife seven months ago. He says he will marry Bertha.

Work has been promised to Bertha's sister and her husband at Dover Plains, Dutchess county, N. Y., on a farm. They say that if Sommers, who is now out of work, will marry the girl they can and will get him work at the same place.

The Vesuvius Not Yet Accepted.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The question of the acceptance of the dynamite cruiser Vesuvius, which has been held open by the navy department for a year longer, is now being discussed by Secretary Tracy, his law advisers and the builders of the Vesuvius. The contractors contend that they have complied with all the requirements of the contract, and ask that the vessel be accepted without further delay. On the other hand the secretary is not quite satisfied with the horse power of the little cruiser and is anxious she should be given another trial to test this point.

Another Boiler Lets Go.

FLINT, Mich., April 25.—A boiler in Cook Brothers' tile and brick yards, six miles south of this city, exploded yesterday morning. A son of Henry Cook, named Fred, was so badly scalded that he lived but a short time. George Baldwin, aged 12 years, and Edward Purcell, aged 18 years, were seriously injured. The brick engine room was demolished, and the three lads were blown through the walls.

Great Day in Oklahoma.

GUTHRIE, I. T., April 25.—All the fire-arms in Guthrie were brought out Tuesday as soon as the news of the final passage of the Oklahoma bill was received. Two men were accidentally wounded. Peter L. Mason settled on a valuable claim near Seward, eight miles south of Guthrie, just a year ago, and Wednesday the government patent was given him, being the first in the territory.

An Antidote to Ingersoll.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 25.—Rev. S. R. Long, a Methodist missionary in Burma, is here raising money to buy a printing press. He says "Bob" Ingersoll's works have been translated into Burmese, and the Brahman priests are using them to show the people that Christianity is a fraud. Mr. Long wants to print the Bible in Burmese as an antidote to Ingersoll.

Michigan Out of Debt.

LANSING, Mich., April 25.—The auditor general's office announces that on May 1 the last installment of $239,000 of the state debt of Michigan will be paid from monies which have been in the sinking fund for years for that purpose. This will put Michigan wholly out of debt, a condition now enjoyed only by Illinois, Wisconsin, Colorado and West Virginia.

Reward Offered for the Lumberjacks.

TONAWANDA, N. Y., April 25.—The Lumbermen's association last evening offered a standing reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who were responsible for Tuesday night's fires, and also offered a similar reward for the arrest and conviction of anyone who may hereafter cause incendiary fires in any of the lumber yards.

The House and Senate

Proceedings of Both Branches of Congress.

LABOR QUESTION DISCUSSED.

It is Brought Up in the House While the Appropriation Bill is Being Considered—Nothing Done in the Senate of Any Importance.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The house yesterday, in committee of the whole, worked on the legislative appropriations bill and discussed the civil service law.

Mr. Cummings, of New York, moved to increase the salaries of "clock room" men from $300 to $720 per year, and this led to a long discussion of the labor question.

When the clause appropriating salaries for the civil service commission was reached Mr. Cummings, of New York, made the point of order that it was not properly in the bill. The commission was neither legislative, executive nor judicial.

Mr. Butterworth, of Ohio, called attention to the fact that the title of the bill included the words "and for other purposes."

Mr. Cummings replied that the commission was for no purpose at all. It should be named the great supervisory commission of the government and turned loose upon the land. Its usurpations were getting to be monstrous. As conducted it had been a scandal to the government. Instead of confining itself to the simple duties, as indicated by law, it came before congress in the bill as a legislative, executive or judicial institution. The apparent ignorance of some of these commissioners had been largely displayed. What they lacked in intelligence and experience, they made up in arrogance and superciliousness. The insolence of office was never better exemplified. The first commissioner gave more ungrammatical sentences in his letters than were to be found in "English as she is spoke."

The lack of knowledge of the board was lamentable. Even ex-Governor Thompson, of South Carolina, one of the commissioners, he said, had been obliged to make the humiliating confession that he did not know that the $1,800 clerk of the commission was required by law to be a stenographer. Nor did Mr. Lyman, the president of the commission. Mr. Roosevelt, the brilliant and accomplished cowboy, knew something about it, but did nothing. Whenever caught in an illegal act the commissioners made their ignorance their excuse. They did not know where they came from or where they were bound. None of them could box the compass. Even the Smithsonian professors would be at fault in characterizing the commission.

Mr. Cummings' point of order was overruled.

Mr. Dorsey, of Nebraska, moved to reduce the number of commissioners from three to one. He thought one enough to carry on this little bureau of the government.

Mr. Spinala, of New York, denounced the civil service law as an infamous imposition on the people, and a complete humbug in conflict with every principle upon which the government was founded.

Mr. Dorsey's amendment was ruled out.

Mr. Perkins, of Kansas, offered an amendment exempting ex-soldiers from the provisions of civil service law and said that he knew the people are not in sympathy with it. More than this, he believed the weakness of the present administration was in standing by that law, and if Democratic success should come in the next election it will be because the administration in power did not stand by the working Republicans rather than by its professions of civil service reform. The amendment was ruled out.

Mr. Houk, of Tennessee, moved to strike out the entire civil service clause.

Mr. Biggs, of California, denounced the civil service law, contending that an administration should have its friends in office.

Mr. McKinley, of Ohio, earnestly opposed the motion to strike out the appropriation. His only regret was that the appropriation committee did not give to the civil service commission all the appropriation it asked, for the enlargement of civil service. If the Republican party of this country was pledged to one single thing more than another, it was the maintenance of the civil service law. It was not only according to the tenets of the Republican party, but according to the best sentiments of the United States. Now when the Republican party was in control of all the branches of the government, it was proposed to virtually repeal this law, when for four years, during a Democratic administration, nobody on the Republican side had the temerity to rise in his place and ask for the nullification of the law. They thought it good enough for a Democratic administration, and he said to his Republican friends that it was good enough for a Republican administration. The Republican party must take no backward step. The merit system was here and here to stay.

Mr. Butterworth endorsed what Mr. McKinley had said. Nothing smacked of monarchial forms as much as the spoils system.

Mr. Houk's motion to strike out was lost—yeas 61, nays 120.

Pending further action, the committee rose, and the house at 5:30 adjourned.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—In the senate yesterday, on motion of Mr. Gray, the house bill to transfer the revenue marine cutter service from the treasury department to the navy department, was taken up.

Pending consideration of the bill, Mr.

Hoar reported from the committee on privileges and elections, as an original bill, a bill to amend the Federal election laws of the United States.

Mr. Pugh, a member of the committee, said the bill was opposed by every Democratic member of the committee, and spoke in opposition to it.

Mr. Sherman then took the floor in opposition to the revenue cutter transfer bill, denouncing it as a bribe to every officer in the revenue marine service, because it increased their compensation and placed many of them on the retired list.

At 2 p. m. the land forfeiture bill was taken up as unfinished business and was discussed for sometime, but without action went over.

After short executive session, the senate, at 5:30 p. m., adjourned.

GROWING WORSE.

Hundreds of Families Homeless on Account of the Mississippi Floods.

NEW ORLEANS, April 25.—The Pointe Plaisant levee, Tensas parish, twenty-three miles below Vicksburg, broke yesterday. It was a very important levee. Most of Tensas parish will doubtless be flooded.

Superintendent Grant, of the Texas and Pacific railway, says that $20,000,000 worth of property will be irretrievably damaged by the break in the Morganza levee. The people ought to have spent $500,000 in saving the levee rather than let it break and then make a great fuss about sending relief.

Every plantation in Pointe Coupee parish has been flooded from the Bayou Sara break. Hundreds of families are homeless. All the levees are broken. Thousands of cattle have been drowned. It is probable that many persons in the interior have perished.

The relief steamer Decatur last night found groups of scores of people, whites and blacks, some with babies in arms. They were huddled on knolls between the broken levees. The steamer gathered them in. Many starving cattle were passed.

A family named Luke, consisting of fifteen persons, were rescued by the Decatur. They owned a large plantation, a well filled store and one hundred head of stock. A crevasse sixty feet wide occurred right in front of their house Monday, and the flood destroyed all their property. The family narrowly escaped, but managed to reach the levee above the break. Many similar tales are heard.

When the Decatur reached Bayou Sara she had 1,000 head of cattle and 500 people aboard. After landing them she started on another relief trip.

President Glynn, of the police jury, says thirteen parishes will be overflowed in that district.

SLIGHT EXCUSE.

A Young Girl's Reasons for Her Sudden Disappearance.

LAFORTE, Ind., April 25.—Miss Orelle Curtis, a pretty young lady of Hagerman, Porter county, disappeared from home some two months ago, and her whereabouts were not discovered until yesterday, when the truant girl was found in a house of questionable repute at Michigan City.

She refused to leave and the police were called in to assist in taking the girl to the city jail, where she afterwards repented and returned to her home. Miss Curtis is only 18 years old, and is remarkably pretty. She says she was cruelly treated and left home to escape the wrath of her parents, who objected to the marked attention paid the young lady by a gentleman of the village. For a long time it was feared that she had ended her sorrows by committing suicide.

EARTHQUAKE IN CALIFORNIA.

Forty Lives Lost, But a Railroad Bridge Rendered Impassable.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—A severe earthquake shock was experienced here shortly after 3 o'clock this morning. Buildings were shaken perceptibly and persons aroused from their sleep. Plastering fell from walls in places, but no serious damage has as yet been reported.

Several buildings in this city had walls cracked. The railroad bridge at Pajero was thrown two feet out of line. Gas mains were disjoined at Gilroy.

A Mayfield dispatch says that the shock was very severe there. The railroad bridge was rendered impassable, as the piers, which are sixty feet high, settled a few inches, and the rails spread about a foot. The ground in places settled six to twelve inches. Railroad travel will be delayed several hours.

Shooting in a Gypsy Camp.

TRENTON, N. J., April 25.—Yesterday morning Noah Palmer, aged 70 years, a member of a band of Gypsies encamped at Morrisville, near here, and who had been on a protracted spree, shot his wife, killing her instantly, during a quarrel. He then attempted to shoot his daughter who was sleeping alongside her mother, but failed, the bullet going through the tent; he then turned the pistol on himself and shot himself in the back of the head, inflicting a wound from which the doctor says he cannot recover. All the parties in the encampment are in charge of the police.

Fell Between Cars.

CINCINNATI, April 25.—Ed. Hopper, 25, employed as a railway brakeman on the Little Miami, leaped from a moving car, near Woodlawn, at 8 a. m., and fell beneath the cars. He attempted to rise, but was struck by the trucks and sustained three great skull fractures. Had he lain quietly he would have escaped injury. He was conveyed to the hospital where he died at noon. Hopper was single and resided at Gladstone avenue and Lewis street.

Signal Service Station Inspection.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Gen. Greeley, chief of the signal corps, will start in a few days on a tour of inspection of the signal service stations in Arizona, Colorado, Utah and Nebraska.

THE EVENING BULLETIN

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

FRIDAY, APRIL 25, 1890.

The Fleming Gazette remarks that "the next Democratic candidate for Circuit Judge will come out of Fleming County." Let's have his name, Mr. Gazette.

The Louisville Commercial endorses Representative Blackerby's bill to provide for an exhibition of the products of Kentucky at the World's Fair, and says the measure ought to pass unanimously. Undoubtedly, an exhibition of that kind if gotten up in a creditable manner, would prove a profitable thing for the State.

REPUBLICAN CONGRESSMEN have approved the Morrill Service Pension bill which grants a pension of $8 a month to soldiers who served ninety days in the war, and who shall have reached the age of sixty-two years. This, by the way, is but one of the many pension schemes pending in Congress. The millions that have already been paid the hungry patriots seem only to have given them a ravenous appetite for more.

The New York World published an alleged interview with ex-President Cleveland the other day in which the latter was represented as using bitter language towards Charles A. Dana, of the New York Sun. The World now admits that Mr. Cleveland did not use the coarse and harsh words attributed to him. These two papers named are very much mistaken if they think they can kill off Mr. Cleveland as a Presidential candidate in 1892.

THE Boston Herald seems very much pleased at Democratic prospects. It asserts that "there has been no year since the war—not even that remarkable one of 1874, which was followed by seventy or eighty Democratic majorities in Congress—when the local elections of the country showed such steady and sweeping gains against the party in power as they have shown in the North, the center and East this year—everywhere, indeed, in which the people have voted."

The McKinley bill, if it becomes a law, will increase the taxes paid at the custom house to the amount of $15,500,000 on wool and woollens. The amount of bounties wool growers and wool manufacturers would reap may be put at $45,000,000 additional. Thus the people are called on to pay, in way of tariff taxes, $15,500,000, and in way of tariff protection $45,000,000—a total of $60,500,000 annually—because a few sheep herders in Ohio want to rob all the people of the country.—Louisville Times.

Items for the Farmer.

The Boddman House, Cincinnati, sold a hoghead of Brown County tobacco a few days ago for $23 a hundred. The Walker House sold a hoghead of Mason County at $20 a hundred.

The Western Tobacco Journal says: "It is not now a question of preparation of plant beds with the growers of Burley, for it is generally admitted that few planters that want to grow tobacco this year but have their beds sown and the prospects good for ample plants. Farmers report the ground as breaking up lumpy and tough, with cracks and fissures, on the surface before plowing, and many claim that a short drouth will put the plants set out in such ground in poor condition, and if the wet weather continues or breaks out at intervals, plants are liable to scald and show other fatal defects.

"This belief is not in any way exceptional, but is quite general, and many planters and numbers of packers are holding the 1889 crop for the increase they anticipate later on when the season proves its unfavorableness for this year's crop. Many argue that the very long and excessively wet weather of the past six to nine months is sure to be compensated for by an extended dry spell or drought, and believe that it will be experienced this summer, and wreck the prospects of the 1890 crop, in which event the 1889 crop will be in the greatest of demand, particularly plug fillers, which are in rather moderate supply in the 1889 crop."

The Senate has passed a bill amending the Mechanics' Lien law so that subcontractors shall not have a lien for labor or material furnished, unless written notice shall be given to the owner within thirty days.

Senator Poyntz's bill requiring all vinegar to be branded as pure, or manufactured, and providing penalties therefor, was passed by the House by a vote of 64 to 4, and a motion to consider was laid on the table.

BRICK STREETS.

Something About Such Thoroughfares at Columbus, Ohio. Their Cost.

The city of Detroit sent out a special committee some weeks since to investigate the subject of streets. The committee visited Cleveland, Columbus, Decatur and other points and recommend brick streets very highly. They say:

"In Columbus the committee found twenty-one miles of brick pavement, all of which had been laid within the last six years. The residents claim that seven years ago this was one of the worst paved cities in the country, and it impressed the committee as being now one of the very best. The brick in principal use is what is known as the 'Halwood Block.' It is made of a mica shale, ground to a fine flour, sifted, mixed with water, dressed, dried and thoroughly vitrified by burning. The block is a large one, taking forty-five to the square yard to sixty-five of the ordinary brick. The company that makes these brick have such confidence in their wearing qualities that they proposed to the committee to lay them in Detroit for $2.50 per square yard, with a ten years' guarantee on business streets and a twenty years' guarantee on suburban streets. This pavement is laid on a foundation of eight inches of broke stone, rolled with a ten-ton roller, and two inches of sand for a cushion. The joints are filled with boiling pitch. The streets of Columbus are in excellent condition. No repairs whatever have been made during the six years in which brick has been used. The resisting power of the brick was shown to good advantage between the street car tracks, where it was subjected to the greatest and most constant wear. The price of paving brick in Columbus ranges from $2.25 to $2.50 per square yard, and includes a foundation of ten inches of broke stone.

"In Decatur, Ill., the system of laying brick is entirely different, and the cost much less than in Columbus. The brick is of the ordinary size, 2x4x8, and the sub-soil is clay. Four inches of sand is laid, then a flat brick layer, then a cushion coat of two inches of sand, and then the wearing surface, which is of vitrified brick, laid on edge. There are eight miles of this pavement there, and not more than $50 has been paid out for repairs in the five or six years it has been laid. The first street was paved five years ago with the ordinary common hand-made brick, and even this expected to last from two to three years, though the material of which it is laid is now discarded. The best pavement costs from $1.50 to $1.70 per square yard, with brick at $9 per thousand for selected and $8 for the average run."

Railroad News.

Three work trains are now stationed at Dover.

The Carlisle and Mt. Olivet Railroad Company has applied to the Legislature for a charter. It is to go by way of Blue Lick Springs, and among the incorporators are Judge Hargis, Captain Den Turney and Amos Turney. The bill gives the people of Nicholas the right to vote $20,000 or $25,000 to aid in building the road.

The Washington Post says: "Mrs. Abbott did all that was claimed for her. We can't define the power. Truly it is phenomenal, as there is positively no sort of physical or muscular force used by her. She is a great wonder." Mrs. Abbott will give an exhibition of her mysterious power at the opera house to-night, to-morrow afternoon and to-morrow night. Don't miss seeing her.

The Paris Kentuckian says: "We venture the assertion, and do so without fear of contradiction, that Bourbon County is now the quietest county in the State of Kentucky. The grand jury has been in session for two days and failed to find an indictment against any person, white or colored, rich or poor, male or female. If there is any other county in this or any other State that can show so good a record we would like to hear from it. Ohio papers will please observe that this item is from the so-called 'Dark and Bloody Ground,' and immediately in the heart of the blue grass region." The jury has since adjourned because it found no business to keep it in session, according to the Kentuckian.

The Grand Old Party Organ.

[Chicago Herald.] "A riot and two negroes killed," the news reporter said. "That's good!" exclaimed the editor; "write some big, startling head. And wave the bloody shirt for all the article is worth." "But," the reporter added, "this happened in the North." "Oh, did it?" said the editor; "well, then, just let it pass. We can't afford to waste our space on such a worthless class."

Testing Tight Lacing on Monkeys.

[New York Sun.] An English medical commission, incidentally to another investigation, had to make some experiments as to the effect of tight-lacing. Female monkeys were used. They were put into a plaster-of-paris jacket to imitate stays, and a tight bandage was bound about the waist to imitate a petticoat band. Several of the monkeys died very quickly, and they all showed serious injuries resulting from the treatment.

Announcement.

Editor of the Bulletin: I understand it has often been asked if in my announcement as a candidate to represent Mason County in the Constitutional convention, I would be so subject to the action of the Democracy of the county. I made the announcement as I did because I had been generally solicited to become a candidate. But I wish it distinctly understood that I am always subject to the action of the Democratic party in the mode and manner they may select.

LITTLE MRS.

«ABBOTT»

THE GEORGIA MAGNETIC MARVEL.

Weights only 63 pounds, but four men cannot lift her. Can lift 1,500 pounds without physical or mechanical effort. Two strong men cannot draw a stick through her hands. By placing her fingers on their heads she will raise two men from the floor. Standing upon one foot it will be impossible for two men to throw her off her balance. Lifts a whole baseball nine at once. Mrs. Abbott, by placing the palms of her hands into those of a ten-year-old boy's hands, transfers the mysterious power to him and in two men can lift him from the floor. Challenges the strongest athletes to raise her from the floor. Many feats equally unexplainable. Prices, 25, 35 and 50c. Matinee Prices, 15 and 25c.

CAPTAIN PETER BOUGHNER,

A Veteran Riverman Passes Away.
Sketch of the Deceased.

Captain Peter Boughner died yesterday morning about 11 o'clock at the family residence on Second street, in the West End. Deceased had been in feeble health the past year or two. About six weeks ago he was taken down with something like dropsy, and on Tuesday morning he was stricken with paralysis. He sank steadily from that on, passing away at the hour named.

Captain Boughner was born at Augusta in December, 1825. His first service on the river was in 1841, with a Captain Fletcher. In 1845 or 1846 he was made pilot of the steamer Simon Kenton in the Maysville and Cincinnati trade. In 1849 he bought the Daniel Boone, of the Cincinnati & Big Sandy Packet Company, with which company (now known as the White Collar Line) he was connected until a few years ago. He served most of the time as pilot.

For years he was one of the best pilots in the service of the White Collar Line, and was at the wheel of many new steamers on their initial trip. He brought out all the Bostonas constructed by the company named.

Captain Boughner had several thrilling experiences during his life. For a while during the war he was in the service of the Government, piloting transports, convoys, &c. In 1864 he and his brother, Ike, were at the wheel of the Bostona No. 3 when she made the run past Maysville under fire from Pete Everett's command. On August 8, 1866, the Bostona No. 3 was burned to the water's edge just after leaving the wharf here. Captain Boughner was at the wheel when the alarm of fire was given and ran the burning steamer on the bar below Aberdeen. He remained at his post of duty till the boat struck ground, and then succeeded in escaping safely to the shore. His heroic conduct on this occasion undoubtedly saved many of the passengers from a horrible death.

His wife and several children survive him. The funeral takes place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the family residence. Services by Rev. I. A. Thayer.

Tourists,

Whether on pleasure bent or business, should take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectually on the kidneys, liver and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches and other forms of sickness. For sale in 50c. and $1 bottles by all leading druggists.

Astounding Performances.

Mrs. Abbott, the "electric wonder," gave a performance at Ironton, O., Wednesday night, and a committee of the prominent citizens of that place in a card says: "We find the half has not been told." Mrs. Abbott not only performs all the marvelous feats advertised, but much more. They are simply astounding and inexplicable, marvelous beyond conception and a manifestation of some force other than that making up the ordinary phenomena of nature."

THE marriage of Miss Mary Trimble Armstrong and Mr. R. A. Swigert took place at Hillsboro, O., Wednesday evening. The Enquirer correspondent says it was the most notable social event in the history of that city. The bride is the only daughter of Colonel Frank Armstrong, and has many friends and relatives in this city.

JOHN RHODES got judgment in the Circuit Court yesterday for $200 against Wm. Burke for malicious prosecution. The parties live near Murphysville. Some months ago Burke charged Rhodes with throwing a dead animal in a spring, and had him arrested for it. Rhodes was acquitted and turned about and sued for $1,000 damages, with the result as above stated.

A FEW days ago a gentleman who resides at a certain point on the C. and O. above Maysville came down on the Russell accommodation. In getting off the train in front of the Cooper Building he stumbled and came near falling. He soon finished the business that called him here and left by the next train. On arriving home he missed two twenty-dollar gold pieces and some coppers from his vest pocket. He concluded at once that he had lost them in getting off the train here and telegraphed Captain N. Cooper. A search was made, the money was soon found and has been returned to its owner.

Latest Labor News.

Carpenters' Troubles Rapidly Increasing.

OTHER TRADES IN SYMPATHY.

A General Strike Is Expected in Chicago May 1, and It Is Estimated That the Number of People Directly and Indirectly Idle Will Number a Quarter of a Million—Other Labor Dispatches.

CHICAGO, April 25.—Reports from various parts of the city show that no building work of any importance is being done. It is the opinion of capitalists, as well as labor leaders, that May 1 will find Chicago in the midst of one of the greatest strikes ever experienced. The demand for eight hours will be almost universal, while the employers in the different trades are all seemingly determined not to grant the demand.

The carpenters' strike seems as far from termination as on the day the men went out. The gas fitters and harness makers go out Monday, the brick makers are now out, with no assurance of a speedy termination of their strike, and these, with the 15,000 stock yards employees who are determined to get their eight hours or quit, makes a total of about 27,000 men who will, from present indications, be striking on May 1. Should such a general movement be made, innumerable branches of trade and industries of less proportion will follow in the wake of the great outbreak and business in Chicago will be all but paralyzed, while fully 50,000 men will be idle.

Considerable elation was felt at the carpenters' headquarters yesterday over the signal defeat of the attempt made by one of the contractors to import workmen. The contractor, George Fuller, brought seven men from Milwaukee, who, upon reaching this city, were met by a committee of strikers and straightway joined the union.

The strike of the North Side brick-makers is about at an end. The men, who went out on a demand that the manufacture of 7,000 bricks shall constitute a day's work, have practically won the fight. Yesterday afternoon many of the yard resumed work, the proprietors conceding the demands of the men.

State of Affairs in Pittsburgh.
PITTSBURGH, April 25.—The grievance committee of the Federated Railway Employees has received replies to their demands from the officials of all the railroads in the city except one. Their demands are refused in every instance. While the officials do not say they will not pay the demand, they say that they are only bound by the advance already submitted. The men, however, insist upon the standard wages, and another consultation will be held, after which the railroad officials will be called upon again.

Should they still refuse the terms offered the supreme council of federation will be called in to take charge of the matter. If the railroad officials refuse to treat with the supreme officers a strike will be ordered. It is learned that the engineers will also present a list of grievances to the companies, and have assured the federation that in case of a strike they will refuse to haul trains manned by non-union men.

The Miners' Strike Is On.
CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., April 25.—Yesterday the sixty days' notice given by the coal miners and coke workers of the Smithton district expired, and a strike, bringing out over 1,000 men, is on. The companies concerned are: Smithton Coal and Coke company, Stoner & Company, New York and Port Royal Coal and Coke company, Waverly Coke company, Whitelock Coal company, Banner Coal company, West Newton Gas and Coal company, and West Moreland Coal company. The demands of the miners are for the recognition of the Columbus scale of prices for mining at all works in the district. This is seventy-five cents per ton. The present price ranges from forty to sixty-two cents per ton. The strikers are well organized, and a protracted struggle is anticipated.

Will Ask for Nine Hours.
BUFFALO, N. Y., April 25.—The district council of United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners last night decided to endeavor to secure a nine hour day for all mill hands and carpenters. The council will do nothing this year directly towards obtaining an eight-hour day, but if its demands for nine hours is ignored a strike may be looked for.

Demands Refused.
LANCASTER, Pa., April 25.—The demand of the different trades unions for a reduction of hours to nine per day after May 1 has been refused by the bosses. A demand by the union carpenters for uniform wages of $2 per day has also been refused.

Philadelphia Carpenters.
PHILADELPHIA, April 25.—The demands of the carpenters have not yet been granted, and a prominent member of the Builders' Exchange says they will not be.

The total sales up to midday amounted to $175,000 shares. The market was strong throughout and business was well distributed. GO OFF WITH A TIGHT FINE.

CRAWFORDVILLE, Ind., April 25.—Citizens hearing that William Willhite, a prominent coal and oil merchant of this city, was beating and inhumanly treating his wife, a fragile, sickly woman, investigated and had him arrested. Willhite broke down, pleaded guilty and was fined $75. He is prominent in church matters, and there is intense excitement over the case, as Mrs. Willhite is in a critical condition.

Preferred Sheep to Foxes.

COLUMBUS, Ind., April 25.—A large number of fox hounds, owned by different farmers in the western part of this county, that had been chasing foxes for two days, left their trail and fell upon a large flock of sheep owned by Eli Sanders and S. Ant early yesterday morning. They killed and badly wounded forty-seven of them before they could be checked.

Freight Cars Smashed.

GREENSBURG, Pa., April 25.—An east-bound freight broke at the southwest junction this morning and ran together again, smashing from twenty to twenty-five cars loaded with merchandise, and slightly injuring one of the brakemen. The wrecked cars were thrown over an embankment seventy-five feet high.

WARNING TO BAGGAGEMEN.

An Old Navy Revolver in a Trunk That Was Roughly Handled.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 25.—The baggage-men at the Union station were badly frightened yesterday when, upon throwing a trunk from a train upon the asphalt pavement, the act was followed by an explosion, and a bullet went whizzing by the head of one of the men.

An ugly hole was discovered in the side of the trunk, when it was turned over and the odor of burning goods was plainly smelt. The trunk was burst open and a large navy revolver was discovered wrapped in an old shirt. It had been discharged by the concussion and had set fire to the contents of the trunk.

Everybody is invited to call, and a special invitation is extended to the ladies. Country people are invited to bring all their produce to me and make my house their headquarters while in the city.
